STRESS-FREE™

GETS RID OF ODOR AT THE SOURCE

WHILE LEAVING BEHIND A LIGHT AND REFRESHING SCENT OF EUCALYPTUS MINT. THANKFULLY, STRESS FREE™ ODOR ELIMINATION AIR FRESHENER IS DIFFERENT.

In a matter of seconds, you can transform any room into a stress-free, worry-free zone of relaxation that's ready to welcome you and all of your guests without fear of bad odors creeping back in.

WHERE TO USE IT

The Stress Free™ Odor Elimination Air Freshener can be used throughout any room in your home to get rid of an array of bad smells. Whether it's from pets, people, shoes, dirty laundry, or something else entirely, this dry aerosol spray can be used in the bedroom, bathroom, office, kitchen, kennel, and anywhere else you want to remove bad odors.

You can also bring a can to your office where it can be used to keep your work area smelling fresh all day long. Likewise, this aerosol is safe and effective for locker rooms, senior living centers, healthcare facilities, and all other living spaces, too!

HOW TO USE IT

This air freshener is V.O.C. compliant and it works to attack airborne odors as soon as you spray it. Using it is quick and simple, just spray the fresh mist through the air. When using for an entire room, simply spray it through the air while moving your arm in a wide sweeping motion to minimize fallout.

You can also lightly mist it directly onto troublesome fabrics—like your sofa or office chair. You can even use it to freshen the clothes in your closet, your pet's bedding, and other things that tend to collect odors over time. After using, you'll instantly begin to notice how refreshed everything smells and feels.

You can use the air freshener as often as needed to eliminate odors and leave behind a perfectly balanced fresh scent. You should use it regularly in the bathroom, basement, shared offices, smoke-filled rooms, and any place where odors are a recurring problem. With regular use, you'll never have to suffer through them again.

TRY IT FOR YOURSELF

We are very excited to be sharing the new Stress Free™ Odor Elimination Air Freshener with everyone because we believe in its effectiveness for businesses and individuals alike.

If you're interested in learning more about the product and trying it for yourself, you can buy some directly from our online store or give a territory representative a call to discuss bringing a new great scent into your office space.
